and the "Model Precinct" is as bad as or worse than ever. Publicity was given to the fact that in the precinct honthe residence of Charles F. ored by the residence of Charles F. Murphy, a political boss openly rents houses for disorderly purposes, and makes it a part of his contract with the women who lease from him that they shall be protected from trouble at the hands of the police. It was noticed and commented upon at the time of the Model Captain's raids that none of these select places were molested, and it is said to-day they are carrying on business more openly than ever before. One of the first places raided was the Florence Hotel, near Fourteenth street. That resort is now open and doing business in exactly the same way in which it was conducted before. A gambling house near Twenty-third street, operated in a basement, and another on the second floor of a house in Third avenue, have resumed business, and a weenue, have resumed business, and a weenue, have resumed business, and a weenue, have resumed business, and a politically last night in Murphy, a political boss openly rents avenue, have resumed business, and a reporter had no difficulty last night in entering both of these on the recommendation of a bartender who vouched that he was all right. Brace games are operated in both places, and the dealers comforted the suckers who gathered around the tables with the assurance that the "police were all right."

The social evil is more apparent than before, if such a thing is possible, with the difference that the "parade ground" has been changed to East Fifteenth and East Seventeenth streets from East Eighteenth street and Stuyvesant Park west to Eighteenth street have been for many years among the most avenue, have resumed business, and a reporter had no difficulty last night in

"Seems to me," said Uncle George, or Jerry, as he is more familiarly or Jerry, as he is more familiarly known to the commuters, "that his bugship was first discovered on Long Island, despite what our friends at Paramus, N. J., say.
"It was 'way back in the late seventies when the first specimen was found in this village. He was sunning himself on the back of Charlic McCalfs fishing smack, and when old man Reilly went to brush it off he was electrified.

Regular Summer Guests. "Since then the bug and his family have been regular summer visitors.
"Unlike most of our annual callers they don't bother anybody. Now, down our way we make use of them.

They grow so large that we use them for covers on our milk bottles. We catch them and stick them on the bottles and they stay there all night."

Capa. Frank Boerum, whose boathouse and wet goods emporium is the half-way house to Sands Point, is positive the 'button bee' is the old visitor of years gone by. He certifies that he has heard that plenty of Whitestone and Flushing people have often seen them, but never after being at his place. At Whitestone the button bee
